WELCOME TO CAREER AND COLLEGE READINESS!

Rockingham Community College offers FREE classes to help you meet your academic and work-readiness goals through:

1 ADULT HIGH SCHOOL
This free program helps qualifying adults complete a high school diploma through individualized instruction. Students must pass required high school courses, and receive credit for their previously completed courses. Call 336-342-4261 ext. 2146 to schedule a transcript evaluation appointment.

2 ADULT BASIC EDUCATION AND HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY (HiSET®/GED®)
Many students in our free program are preparing to take an exam such as HiSET® or GED®, to earn a high school equivalency credential. Other students may have already completed a high school credential, but are improving their reading and math skills to be more competitive in the workforce or more successful in college courses.

Call 336-342-4261 ext. 2146 to schedule a two-day orientation at RCC. Classes offered year-round across the county and online.

3 ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACQUISITION (FORMERLY ESL)
These free classes are designed for adults whose native language is not English. Students improve their English speaking, reading, listening and writing skills. Classes are offered throughout the year. Distance learning programs are also available. New students must attend an orientation session. To enroll, call 336-342-4261 ext. 2146 or email ESL@rockinghamcc.edu.
Estas clases gratuitas están diseñadas para adultos cuyo idioma nativo no es el inglés. Los estudiantes mejoran sus habilidades para hablar, leer, escuchar y escribir en inglés. Las clases se ofrecen durante todo el año. Programas de educación a distancia también están disponibles. Los nuevos estudiantes deben asistir a una sesión de orientación. # TRAILS

AT ROCKINGHAM COMMUNITY COLLEGE

An Outdoor Skills Training Program

Duke Energy TRAILS at RCC is the first community college program of its kind in the United States. The program supports training for those active in the fields of sustainable trail building, outdoor recreation & economy, landscape management, environmental planning, outdoor safety, and service leadership.

Many other hands-on skills and certifications are offered. Coursework is structured within a framework of applied learning through community service and service-inspired leadership.

In addition to the core sustainable trail skills training sequence of classes, TRAILS has developed a variety of classes for all skill levels, interests, and needs. Lecture, discussion, and experiential activities/fieldwork are combined to help students completely comprehend the course content.

Additional training topics will be added in the future based on demand. If your organization, agency, or company has specific outdoor skill or planning needs, please let us know so we can create and schedule a program that meets your needs.

New Courses!

Chainsaw Safety

Chainsaw safety classroom and field training is covered during this two-day USFS certified training session by Helton Forestry Enterprises. Due to significant storm damage to area trails, the need for certified and recertified chainsaw operators is a critical issue. Participants will learn basics of chainsaw job hazard analysis, use and maintenance, directional felling, as well as saw tasks and techniques.

Community Paths and Placemaking

Would you like to learn how to improve your community? This course covers concepts needed to design and implement strategies to revitalize and connect neighborhoods to healthy environmental and economic systems, as well as to one another.

Watershed Restoration Planning

Few natural resources are as important for a community's future as its water. From drinking water to irrigation to outdoor recreation and economic development, helping to restore and maintain the health and natural functions of river systems requires considerable effort and collaboration. This class will introduce the major environmental issues, planning agencies and organizations, applicable laws, and public participation processes important for this growing challenge.

TRAILS

Sustainable Trail Design and Layout, Construction, and Maintenance

During this four-day basic trail training session, participants will learn how to design, lay out, construct, and maintain sustainable trails. Classroom teaching and experiential learning will be combined to help students understand the fundamentals of sustainable trails. Participants will begin by discussing the “trail experience” and the characteristics of sustainable trails. They will learn about the five essential elements of sustainable trails and how to incorporate them into trail layout and construction. The session will cover design, construction, and maintenance techniques that minimize the volume and velocity of water on the trail tread. It will guide participants from desktop trail planning to design and layout, corridor flagging, and pin flagging of a trail alignment in the field. Students will gain field experience constructing new trail reroutes and maintaining existing trails on the RCC campus. Students will become familiar with the use of a clinometer to measure trail grade/steepness and side slopes. Common trailwork hand tools will be utilized for trail construction and maintenance. Trailbuilding tools will be provided for student use. Students should bring their own lunch, snacks, and plenty of drinking water. Students must dress appropriately for trailwork – gloves, safety glasses, long pants, and closed-toe shoes (boots preferred).

Sustainable Trail Management, Assessment, Permitting, and Contracting

During this two-day intermediate trail training session, participants will learn about the comprehensive management of natural surface trails. Students will discuss trail assessment, trail facilities, signage, maintenances, wet weather trail closure, and other current issues. Classroom teaching and experiential learning will be combined to help students understand critical trail assessment. Participants will begin by discussing how trail condition, maintenance, and safety can affect the “trail experience”, and they will conduct a desktop trail system review. Students will also learn how the interpretation of assessment results may vary depending on user group and trail difficulty. The session will cover potential permitting requirements and trail contracting for natural surface sustainable trail projects based on assessment results. Participants will gain field experience assessing existing trails and proposed reroutes on the Rockingham Community College trail system. Fieldwork will also include a site visit to a local trail system to evaluate sustainable trail management topics. Students should bring their own lunch, snacks, and plenty of drinking water. Participants must dress appropriately for hiking – long pants and closed-toe shoes (boots preferred), and be prepared to hike 3-6 miles over the course of two days.

Mechanized Trail Construction

During this advanced three-day training session, participants will gain an introduction into the world of mechanized trail building and will train on a variety of mini-excavators and a Sutter trail dozer. Please contact Trevor Flanery, director of Duke Energy TRAILS at RCC for more details at 336-342-4261, ext. 2704.

Basic Rockwork for Trails

Rock and stonework skills for trail building are introduced in this training session. Benchmark Trails Inc., from Greenville, S.C., will instruct the class. Students will learn how to move rock efficiently and use various methods to build stone steps. The class will construct stone steps on the RCC campus trail system. Small class size and focused fieldwork will allow participants to receive guided instruction in the field. Individuals should have prior experience with basic trail skills, and must dress appropriately for trail work – hard hat, safety glasses, gloves, long pants, and boots preferred. Certificates will be awarded.

Chainsaw Safety

Chainsaw safety classroom and field training is covered during this two-day USFS certified training session by Helton Forestry Enterprises. Due to significant storm damage to area trails, the need for certified and re-certified chainsaw operators is a critical issue. Participants will learn basics of chainsaw job hazard analysis, use and maintenance, directional felling, as well as saw tasks and techniques. Students will perform chainsaw operations and be evaluated on their skill level under the guidance of one of the more experienced USFS qualified instructor/certifiers in NC. Certificates will be awarded to all participants. Chainsaws will be provided. Gloves, hard hat, safety goggles and chaps should be furnished by student. Leather boots (required).

Community Paths and Placemaking

This class includes both lecture and design studio instruction elements. Community development and connection are essential to neighborhood success. Walking, landscaping, and environmental quality are fundamental to town and suburban contexts as much as they are natural areas. Would you like to learn how to improve your neighborhood? This course covers concepts needed to design and implement strategies to revitalize and connect neighborhoods to healthy environmental and economic systems, as well as to one another.

Topics include asset-based development, walkability, outdoor recreation, environmental systems, site assessment, and activity-based modeling of local physical settings, populations, and behaviors related to foot traffic such as shopping, recreational walking, or commuting to jobs and schools. Upon completion, students should be able to develop a place-based community development plan.

Wild Mushroom Certification

Students who successfully complete this two-day class will be eligible for a 5-year permit enabling them to forage and sell wild mushrooms at farmer's markets, to restaurants, and in other venues. The mushroom foraging permit meets the criteria required by the health department in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. This course is new to the area and is taught by local favorite Stesha Warren, authorized DHEC, GADPH & NCDPH Mushroom Hunting Instructor. Students will receive a study guide and slides 2 weeks ahead of the class. ### Foraging – Eat the Weeds

Each foraging monthly session focuses on at least five wild plant species currently ready for harvest. A combination of class lecture and field identification/collection will provide an in-depth look at the selected species, potential look-a-likes, and preparation for consumption. Students discuss laws, responsible harvesting, and personal safety guidelines for wild-crafting food and medicine for personal use. Participants receive recipes for each wild plant species to take home and try first hand. Dress appropriately for fieldwork and bring bug spray.

Welding for Beginners – Level 2

This is the ideal opportunity for students who have completed "Welding for Beginners" to continue their instruction and lab experience. "Level 2" provides additional instruction on the principles and practices of welding, with emphasis on SMAW (stick) and GMAW (MIG) welding. Students must have already completed "Welding for Beginners," so they should already have the equipment they need (welding helmet, welding sleeves, pliers, etc.). Upon completion, students will have the knowledge base to seek employment as a welder's helper. Cost includes $90 supply fee.

Effective Teacher Training

This class is designed to teach potential substitute teachers how to be successful in a classroom setting. This course is required by Rockingham County Schools in order to gain employment as a substitute teacher. Topics include classroom management, learning styles, personality types, communication skills, teaching skills, classroom activities, and responsibilities of guest teachers in schools and in the community. Register early for this very popular class – this class is limited to 12 students. No textbook required. Students will need only a basic notebook for note-taking and journaling; this item may be purchased for approximately $1 from Dollar Tree, Dollar General, Walmart, etc. Questions about employment with the Rockingham County Public School system, including whether you may be exempt from this class as a condition of becoming employed with RCS, should be directed to the Human Resources Department at Rockingham County Schools at 336-627-2600. Students must have a high school diploma or GED and must be at least 18 years old to enroll in this class.

A New Focus: Black-n-White Photography

There are two reasons to shoot black and white photography. One is because you think it looks old-fashioned and it's a cool effect. A better reason to shoot black and white photography is because of the lessons it can teach you – like values. We're not talking about ethical values but the value in a monotone sense where color is taken out of the picture and we can focus on value as a single element. Then the class will move into a more advanced session of portrait, landscape and motion photography. This course will include several Sunday field trips. Dates and times TBA after first class meeting.

eLearning CPR Skills Practice & Testing (approx. 1 hour)

Are you seeking an alternative to classroom training or wishing to renew an existing AHA certification? The eLearning online course offers a flexible training option. The online cognitive portion, provided by AHA, allows students to complete learning at their own pace and convenience. Students should schedule a Skills Practice and Testing session prior to taking the on-line cognitive portion. Once students complete the online cognitive portion they should attend their scheduled hands-on skills practice and testing session to complete their certification. During this session students will have the opportunity for one-on-one practice before a skill tests with a certified AHA instructor. Upon successful completion of these parts students will be proficient in the required skills and will receive a certification in the associated discipline. The student will need to bring the eLearning certificate to the appointment along with a valid email address for the certificate. AHA CPR Cards are now eCards; you must have an email address to access your card. Appointment times are Monday/Wednesday 9-5; Tuesday/Thursday 9-7 and Friday 9-12. Appointments will be given in one hour increments. To make an appointment contact Donna Thompson at 336-342-4261, ext. 2602 or thompsond0374@rockinghamcc.edu.

The Rockingham Community College Small Business Center (SBC) is located on the RCC campus, with a satellite office at the county economic development department. The SBC provides a range of free services to small business owners, prospective owners and anyone who is determined to be a more successful and fulfilled person. The SBC at RCC is part of the North Carolina Small Business Center Network: <https://www.ncsbc.net/>

Small businesses are vital to Rockingham County and North Carolina. More than 97% of all North Carolina businesses employ less than 100 people and over 80% of all North Carolina businesses employ 20 workers or less. In the coming years, small businesses are expected to generate an additional 900,000 jobs in North Carolina. The SBC helps to foster that growth by offering assistance to small businesses and prospective small business owners through useful information, education and training, counseling and referral.

The SBC delivers:

- Free seminars critical to small business owners, prospective start-ups, RCC students and to the general public
- In-person, one-to-one assistance for small business owners and prospective start-ups
- Business and industry resources
- Partnerships with federal, state and local resources

CHANGE IN TUITION AND FEES

The NC General Assembly sets tuition rates for most Continuing Education classes. Tuition is subject to change at any time. Fees are established by RCC Board of Trustees, state legislative action and/or the North Carolina Community College System Board and are also subject to change.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY

The College reserves the right to cancel a class due to lack of enrollment. In this case, pre-registered/pre-paid students will be issued a full refund. Pre-registered/pre-paid students who officially withdraw from a course prior to its beginning will be issued a full refund. A student who officially withdraws from the class on or after the first day of classes but prior to or on the official 10% point of the semester will receive a 75% refund. Participants who withdraw from a course after the 10% point are ineligible for a refund. Class schedules are subject to change, without prior notification, due to instructor or classroom availability. For further information concerning courses, call 336-342-4261 ext. 2011, Monday - Thursday 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. and Friday 8 a.m. - 3 p.m.

THIRD PARTY BILLING

Some students have their Continuing Education registration fees and supply costs paid by their employer or a third party. If a company is to be billed for a student's registration, books and/or fees, please contact the Business Office to complete the required Sponsorship Agreement Form. Phone: 336-342-4261 ext. 2184.
